

The Riverside/Sendai Sister-City Committee is hosting a fundraiser to support their cultural exchanges with Sendai, Japan. A night at the Riverside Community Players, presenting Noel Cowards' 1930s award winning comedy:

PRIVATE LIVES

Thurs. Feb. 5th

8:00 PM

Riverside Community
Players

4026 Fourteenth St., Riverside

$25 SUGGESTED DONATION

A pre-performance reception in the patio next to the Playhouse begins at 6:45 P.M.

PRIVATE LIVES by NOEL COWARD: Once married and now honeymooning with new spouses at the same hotel, Elyot and Amanda meet by chance across their attached balconies. Old sparks are reignited and in an impulsive moment, they run off together. Once again, however, they find their fiery romance is alternating between passions of love and anger. When their aggrieved spouses appear, a roundelay of affiliations ensues!

For more information please email William Tarpai:
tarpai@aol.com, or Cate Whitmore: vincate1@gmail.com